MESSAGE FROM THE ROSH HAYESHIVA

RABBI MOSHE MEISELMAN, שליט"א

בכל מקום אשר אזכיר את שמי אבא אליך וברכתך

רש"י - אזכיר את שמי - אשר אתן לך רשות

Forty two years ago, the עולם של רבוננו gave me the רשות and זכות to be מזכיר שמו in Yerushalayim and I was able to found Yeshivas Toras Moshe, named for my saintly grandfather Rav Moshe Soloveichik זצ"ל. During the years we have been זוכה to be מעמית תלמידים הרבה with over 1,500 talmidim having passed through our doors. A formal gathering of parents, alumni and friends forces us to be introspective and to reflect on the past and what this tells us about the future.

Our goal with our talmidim has been multiple. First, to instill in them אהבת תורה ויראת שמים that will accompany them throughout their lives, whether they remain within the walls of the bais medrash or not. During the day to day trials of life, one is continually confronted with נסיונות that force a person to think about his priorities. He is always forced to decide what is טפל in his life and what is עיקר. It is at these instances that those years in yeshiva come to the fore. Especially when one leaves the בית המדרש כותלי the אהבת תורה and יראת שמים that one has absorbed in yeshiva is drawn upon and utilized daily so that one can maintain the same standards that one had when one was within the בית המדרש כותלי.

Second, we have tried to train our talmidim to understand Torah in a deep and sophisticated manner, so that לימוד התורה will be an integral part of their lives forever. Ongoing לימוד שוייתי ה' לנגדי תמיד connects someone to the Torah daily and enables one to focus on הבנת התורה. Furthermore, a deep הבנת התורה enables a person to establish his priorities in a world of confused values and priorities.

The most important lessons one takes out of yeshiva are the ones mentioned. These are the lessons that enable one to remain בן תורה throughout his life, wherever that may take him. The entire staff of Toras Moshe is continually available to its talmidim and alumni whenever they may be needed. Our concern does not end when our talmidim leave the yeshiva. It is a lifelong commitment on our part. We view the Toras Moshe community as an extended family. We are there to help you and hope that you are there to help us.

ארור אשר לא יקים את דברי התורה הזאת לעשות אותם ואמר כל העם אמר

The Ramban comments:

רמב"ן: ובירושלמי בסוטה ראיתי, אשר לא יקים, וכי יש תורה נופלת, רבי שמעון בן יקים אומר זה החזן, רבי שמעון בן חלפתא אומר זה בית דין של מוט, דמר רב יהודה ורב הונא בשם שמואל על הדבר הזה קרע יאשיהו ואמר עלי להקים, אמר רב אסי בשם רבי תנחום בר חיאי למד ולימד ושמר ועשה והיה ספק בידו להחזיק ולא החזיק הרי זה בכלל ארור. ידרשו בהקמה הזאת, בית המלך והנשיאות שבידם להקים את התורה ביד המבטלים אותה, ואפילו היה צדיק גמור במעשיו והיה יכול להחזיק התורה ביד הרשעים המבטלים אותה הרי זו ארור, וזה קרוב לענין שפירשנו. ואמרו על דרך אגדה, זה החזן, שאינו מקים ספרי התורה להעמידן כתקנן שלא יפלו. ולי נראה, על החזן שאינו מקים ספר תורה על הציבור להראות פני כתיבתו לכל, כמו שמפורש במסכת סופרים שמגביהין אותו ומראה פני כתיבתו לעם העומדים לימינו ולשמאלו ומחזירו לפניו ולאחריו, שמצוה לכל אנשים והנשים לראות הכתוב ולקרוע ולומר וזאת התורה אשר שם משה וגו' וכן נוהגין

The Ramban tells us that besides the obligation to fulfill the Torah, to learn and to teach, everyone has an obligation to strengthen the Torah. Furthermore, even someone who has fulfilled the Torah, learned the Torah, taught the Torah and had the opportunity to be מחזק the Torah, and did not, is to be ארור. החזקת התורה is an absolute requirement for every Jew. We have no option. This is not for a select few. Every Jew has to use every one of his abilities to be מחזק the Torah. We are required to make a difference. This is a message that we have taught all of our talmidim. Build yourself, keep growing in Torah your entire life and be מחזק the Torah wherever you can.

Different people do this in different ways. Our alumni have entered many different areas of life. Some have stayed within the בית המדרש כותלי. Some have become כלי קדש, involved in תורה throughout the world. Some have become lay leaders throughout the world. During their time in yeshiva, we have taught our talmidim that when they enter the world they must be sure to make a difference. Our talmidim are spread throughout the world. They are making a difference as כלי קדש throughout the world. They have built communities or strengthened communities throughout the world. They have taken leadership positions as baal habatim throughout the world. We salute all of our talmidim and urge everyone to become involved.

We are living in tumultuous times. The world is changing. It is by the collective efforts of all of us that it can change to make Torah strong. אי"ה through our collective efforts of making Torah strong, we will be זוכה to see the coming of בימנו במהרה.

YESHIVAS TORAS MOSHE

AT A GLANCE:

Among the dozens of American yeshivos in ארץ ישראל, Toras Moshe has long maintained its own unique identity and reputation. With 220 talmidim, including those in both the בית מדרש and the kollel, Toras Moshe is far from the largest American yeshiva in Eretz Yisroel, but that is by design. Its size helps to make possible the highly personalized intense learning environment in which no talmid is ever allowed to "slip between the cracks."

Before any boy is admitted to Toras Moshe, he must first establish both his abilities and motivations to become an outstanding בן תורה, and is then made aware that the yeshiva will expect his very best effort and performance at all times. The results speak for themselves. Toras Moshe products are in demand by the leading yeshivos in ארץ ישראל and the United States.

Most American students coming to Toras Moshe after graduating yeshiva high school stay for at least two years, and quickly become part of a tightly knit community in which they are constantly interacting with חברות, roommates, older bochurim and kollel members as well as the rebbeim on the faculty.

As Rabbi Chuli Kalish, who attended Toras Moshe from 1999-2004, explains, Toras Moshe is not a "buffet style" yeshiva, where an American student is expected to pick his own שיעור, find his own חברות and largely fend for himself. One of the distinguishing features of Toras Moshe is its hands-on guidance for every talmid, not just in שיעורים and the בית מדרש, but also in every other aspect of their life in yeshiva, and in their personal development as בני תורה.

One notable departure from the practice in most yeshivos is the assignment of a number of Toras Moshe's older אברכים to serve as assistant משגיחים, helping to give מוסר and to supervise the younger students. Their encouragement and personal guidance is particularly important to newly arrived students, helping them to adjust to Toras Moshe's more intensive learning environment.

As Rabbi Jay Kosowsky, who learned at Toras Moshe for over ten years, described, while many yeshivos have an intensive learning environment in the בית מדרש and in שיעור, at Toras Moshe, the learning never stops. Spreading beyond the בית מדרש, permeating the dining room at mealtime and in the dormitory rooms after hour, the discussions in learning continue at full intensity, with talmidim from different שיעורים exchanging the insights of their rebbeim and חברות into the סוגיא being learned. This creates an atmosphere of intellectual exploration and discovery which raises the learning to a higher level. It is the starts of what, for almost all of Toras Moshe's talmidim, will be a life-long love affair with the learning of אגמרא.

The talmidim are encouraged to diversify their Torah studies and to explore their specific interests in order to acquire both a broad-based and comprehensive Torah perspective that a true בן תורה needs.

THE VILNA GAON AND TORAH IN AMERICA

The 1700's was almost two centuries before the introduction of mass media communication. Thus, each of the world's various regions focused on its own particular affairs: Catherine the Great was placed on the throne in Russia after a palace revolt. Frederick the Great became a patron of the arts and philosophy in Prussia, and Chienlung emerged as the greatest of the Manchus.

The item claiming the most attention at the time was a nascent republic in the west. A country mostly inhabited by Indians, its capital at the time, in New York, would someday become the port and haven for millions of immigrants and refugees.

One place where none of the attention of the world was directed was a humble בית מדרש in Vilna. In this bare study hall, graced by narrow wooden benches and rickety tables, sat the master with several devoted disciples at his feet.

"My dear students" began the Gaon of Vilna, "we must reach out to our brethren, wherever they may be. Yeshivos must be established to nourish the Torah-starved masses."

He then added, "Only when Torah has been disseminated throughout the world can it return to the Holy Land. This is a prerequisite for the arrival of the משיח."

Rav Chaim of Volozhin had never left the company of the Gaon, yet he had never heard his master speak in this manner. Was his rebbe revealing an example of his clairvoyance? His curiosity was piqued.

"What," asked Rav Chaim, "Will be the last place that Torah will have to reach before it returns to ארץ ישראל?" The Gaon remained silent for a brief moment. Apparently, he understood global events far better and deeper than all the contemporary political scientists and news watchers. He breathed a wistful sigh and responded, "America will have to become a מקום תורה before Torah returns to ארץ ישראל and the משיח will come."

Rav Chaim Volozhiner would never forget his rebbe's words. Decades later, in a בית מדרש in Volozhin, he repeated the incident to a large crowd during a סעודה שלישית. Rav Chaim's audience was comprised of young scholars, men never privileged to see the Gaon in their lifetime.

The attentive students sat at the very edge of their benches as the story was told. They were amazed and visibly moved by what they heard, and even more astounded by their rebbe's reaction. Rav Chaim appeared physically pained. In seconds, he entered a fit of uncontrolled crying.

Rav Chaim's son, Reb Yitzalla sat dumbfounded at his father's unrestrained outburst of emotion. Reb David Tevel, one day to be known as the author of נחלת דוד, stammered, "Why, why is the rebbe reacting in such a manner to the Gaon's prediction?"

"Do you have any idea whatsoever," explained Rav Chaim to his concerned audience, "how much self-sacrifice and deprivation it will take to turn America into a מקום תורה? Do you have any idea of how many קרבנות the Jewish People will have to suffer to achieve this? At this somber prospect I weep."

The students were deeply touched by what they had heard and seen. Clearly the Gaon and his students had a profound appreciation of what would transpire in the New World.

One hundred years later, the Gaon's forecast of America as the one-before-the-final venue seemed no more fulfilled than it had in 1790. It was a particularly cold Shabbos morning in the town of Volozhin. Strong gusts of frigid wind rattled the shutters, as if to confirm that the conditions outside had not changed. Inside the crowded בית מדרש, however, there was warmth and joy, coziness and celebration. The very sight of so many outstanding Torah scholars could have melted the iciest heart.

Rav Chaim Soloveichik was obviously proud of his son Moshe, on this, his bar mitzvah day. So too were the great-grandfather, the Netziv and grandfather, the Bais Halevi, who had graced the celebration with their presence. Moshe's entry into the realm of mitzvos added another firm link into one of Jewry's most illustrious chains and the alter-zeide, the Netziv, felt a need to express his emotions.

"Many years ago," he began, "I heard a story from my father-in-law and rebbe, Reb Yitzalla, the son of Rav Chaim Volozhiner. At the time, I didn't understand the special significance of what he was saying, and in fact, neither did Reb Yitzalla, when he first heard the story. But, I am older and wiser now."

"Everyone present knows how we are suffering and what lies ahead of us..." No doubt the Netziv was referring to the plot incited by the so-called "Enlightenists" to introduce secular subjects into the Yeshiva of Volozhin. So far he had delayed, in fact ignored, implementing the reforms that the government had ordered. There was a limit, however, to how long the Russian officials could look the other way. Less than one year later, the gates of the famed Yeshiva Etz Chaim, the Volozhiner Yeshiva, would be sealed under police edict.

And so my dear Moshe'le," the Netziv continued, his נחת now giving way to melancholy, "I wish to tell you a story..."

The Netziv proceeded to relate the prediction that the Vilna Gaon had made one hundred years earlier and how Rav Chaim of Volozhin had reacted to his master's words.

Only when Torah has been disseminated throughout the world, and America becomes a מקום תורה, can it return to ארץ ישראל, and then משיח will come.

Four decades later, when the bar mitzvah boy, Rav Moshe Soloveichik was already an accomplished Torah giant, he had to make the most important decision of his life. It was clear that he had to leave Europe, but the question was to where.

The more Rav Moshe thought about the decision, the clearer it became. The tears of Rav Chaim Volozhiner penetrated his very soul and convinced him of the need to head west to a country whose capital had moved to Washington but whose center of Jewry remained in New York. The disciple of the Gaon had foreseen the tremendous self-sacrifice which would be involved in transforming America into a מקום תורה, but the young scholar would not absolve himself of his responsibility. This was the legacy which he had inherited from his great-grandfather, and the one which he would pass on to his children.

He prayed that his grandchildren would merit the denouement that the Gaon had assured; that they would be privileged to be part of the return of Torah to the land of Israel, and hasten the arrival of the משיח.

Yeshivas Toras Moshe, named for Rav Moshe Soloveichik, was founded in 1982 by his grandson, Rav Moshe Meiselman. Imbued by the twin ideals of transforming America into a מקום תורה and the return of Torah to ארץ ישראל, he founded a yeshiva for the highly motivated American talmid, who aspires to achieve unprecedented Torah heights in ארץ ישראל. Already, hundreds of talmidim have passed through its doors, many returning to America to continue the process of turning America into a מקום תורה. Many have remained in ארץ ישראל to be part of the return of Torah to its home. All are fulfillments of the Vilna Gaon's prediction that America will be transformed into a מקום תורה and that ultimately Torah would return to ארץ ישראל.

MR. AND MRS. DOVIE GIBBER

GUESTS OF HONOR

A Daf Yomi Maggid Shiur involved in askanus, as well as a corporate executive and lawyer, Dovie Gibber exemplifies the working Ben Torah – dedicating his efforts to learning Torah and Klal Yisrael. He credits his commitment to learning, teaching Torah, and community service to the strong chinuch instilled by his Rebbeim and his and his wife's families.

MR. AND MRS. DOVIE GIBBER

A native of Baltimore, Dovie learned at Ner Yisroel for high school, a yeshiva to which both sides of his family have long been connected. He is grateful to his rebbeim there for providing him with strong learning foundations and for encouraging him to continue his learning at Toras Moshe.

Dovie attended Toras Moshe from 1998 to 2001, crucial years that laid strong rooted foundations for his growth. In what he terms a “cocoon of growth and hasmadah,” he learned in the shiurim of Rabbi Shurkin, the Rosh HaYeshiva and l'hbc'l“c Rabbi Twersky ztz”l. He feels fortunate to be able to highlight how each Rebbe influenced his learning and avodos Hashem – the geshmak of Torah he received from Rav Shurkin, the deliberateness in every word and action from Rav Twersky, and the clarity and striving for emes—both in a sugya and in life decisions—from the Rosh HaYeshiva. He remains guided by the Rosh HaYeshiva today and is grateful for the Mashgiach’s hadracha which continues to benefit him and his family.

Today, Dovie and his wife, Sara (nee Bulman), feel privileged to be part of Kehillas Kol Torah – a shul with many Toras Moshe alumni – and to have R’ Yosef Berger as a rav who guides them. Dovie is also a gabbai in the shul’s Adopt-a-Kollel program which has partnered for several years to support Toras Moshe’s kollel.

Mrs. Gibber’s paternal grandfather was R’ Nachman Bulman, world renowned for his dedication to kiruv rechokim and teaching Torah throughout America and Eretz Yisroel. Sara’s father is also a devoted member of his kehilla in the Toronto community who spends much of his spare time learning. Today, Mrs. Gibber devotes her time to raising their five children and is active in various community organizations, including Bikur Cholim, their children’s schools, and their shul.

Professionally, Dovie serves as Executive Vice President and Chief Legal Officer of Sinclair, Inc., overseeing the legal department as well as the distribution and network affiliate departments. In these roles, Dovie has taken the opportunity to advocate on behalf of Klal Yisroel. Despite a demanding career, he remains active as a board member in various community organizations. Most notably, with the support of his wife, he dedicates significant time each day to prepare for his 6:30 am Daf Yomi shiur and reviewing the Daf Yomi.

While Dovie credits the Rosh Yeshiva’s nephew, Rabbi Yissocher Dov Eichenstein, the Zidichover Rebbe of Baltimore, with not just asking but insisting he take on this role, being a Daf Yomi Maggid Shiur is actually in the Gibber blood. His father, who has completed the Daf Yomi cycle six times, gives a 5:30 a.m. shiur (“I give the late one,” Dovie jokes).

Dovie’s goal for his shiur is to enable bnei Torah to hold onto the geshmak of learning even years after yeshiva and integrating that in their family and work life.

It’s the strong life hashkafa he received from his years in Toras Moshe – a hashkafa that has shaped so much of his current life. That is why he is particularly proud that his oldest son, Nachman, is now learning in Toras Moshe, continuing the strong family connection to the yeshiva.

RABBI AND MRS. SHMUEL WEINER
KESSER TORAH AWARD

As Rav of one of the most prominent Anglo kehillos in Ramat Eshkol; Rosh Kollel and Maggid Shiur in two yeshivos and several kollelim; director of a kashrus organization; and go-to posek and counselor for Anglo couples throughout the country and across the world, it is no wonder that Rabbi Weiner has been described as one of the most influential people in the Anglo-Yerushalayim community.

RABBI AND MRS. SHMUEL WEINER

Communal Rav and leader is not a role he imagined himself filling back when he was a bochur first entering Toras Moshe. A Lakewood native who had learned in the Yeshiva of Staten Island for high school under Rav Reuven Feinstein, Rabbi Weiner joined Toras Moshe in 1987. During his two years there, he developed a close kesher with the Rosh Yeshiva, the Mashgiach, and Rabbi Shurkin. (Later, while in the Mir, he learned with and became close to Rabbi Abramowitz.) He returned to the U.S., where he learned in the South Fallsburg and Lakewood yeshivos. Following his marriage to Racheli Rackovsky, the young couple came to Eretz Yisrael for what was supposed to be a year or two in the Mir. Then, he decided to try out Toras Moshe's kollel—and is still there thirty years later.

He began learning with bochurim in the Rosh Yeshiva's shiur, through which he became close to Rabbi Meiselman, shlit"i. This position grew into giving Gemara chaburos and eventually turned into his current position giving second seder shiur. Around the same time, in 2006, he joined Rabbi Senter's newly opened yeshiva, Aderes HaTorah, becoming the yeshiva posek and morning sefer Maggid Shiur. A few years later, he brought in an outside kollel to learn in the yeshiva, and today is a Rosh Kollel and also gives shiurim to the bochurim.

Life grew even busier when, in 2012, a new Ramat Eshkol shul, Zichron Nosson Tzvi (known as ZNT), hired Rabbi Weiner as their Mara D'Asra. Since then, Rabbi Weiner has built this pioneering kehillah—the first American shul in Ramat Eshkol—into a community uniquely designed to meet the needs of the young American couples starting off married life in Eretz Yisrael.

His kashrus organization, ZNT Kosher—today the go-to organization for Americans in Israel seeking kashrus standards they can trust—was formed in 2016 in response to one of those needs. The complex, multi-layered Israeli kashrus scene can be quite confusing to Americans in Israel; ZNT Kosher provides secondary hechsherim for eating establishments and home businesses to ensure their kashrus meets the standards American visitors are used to.

Rabbi Weiner was zocheh to relationships with several Gedolim over the course of his life, particularly in his training to become a posek. He counts among his early mentors Rav Reuven Feinstein and Rav Shurkin, from whom he received the halachic mesorah of Rav Moshe Feinstein. He spent several years doing shimush with Rabbi Yaakov Blau, Rabbi Isaac Kahana, and Rabbi Abish Eisen of the Eida Charedis, as well as Rabbi Moshe Yadler.

Yet underlying all his knowledge are the learning foundations he received at Toras Moshe, which, he says, influence the way he approaches halacha and psak, and also taught him to achieve a deeper understanding of hashkafa and life situations—a skill he uses today to guide his kehillah.

What is it like being a Maggid Shiur in the yeshiva he first came to as a seventeen-year-old bochur? "There is a feeling of security," Rabbi Weiner explains, "from still being part of my yeshiva and being connected to my rebbeim. I grew up through Toras Moshe," he says. "I spent my main learning years there, as a bochur and a yungerman. And I'm still in their hands. What Toras Moshe had to offer me as a young bochur, it's still offering me now and will continue to offer me."

Yeshivas Toras Moshe is very proud to recognize Rabbi and Mrs. Shmeul Weiner as recipients of the Kesser Torah award at the 42nd Anniversary Tribute Dinner.

R' DANIEL AND DR. Yael DANESH

YOUNG LEADERSHIP AWARD

How does a hardworking businessman manage to make Torah his main focus in life? R' Daniel Danesh, a lawyer and commodities trader who devotes much of his time to learning and spreading Torah in his community, is an inspiring example of how to achieve this ultimate balance.

It is an accomplishment he attributes to the influence of his years in Toras Moshe, as well as to strong family support.

R' DANIEL AND DR. Yael DANESH

A native of Brooklyn's Iranian community, R' Danesh attended Yeshiva Ateret Torah for high school. When it came time for post-high school yeshiva, he chose Toras Moshe because of its reputation for Torah learning at a very high standard. He learned there from 2008 – 2010, in the shiurim of Rabbi Abramowitz and Rabbi Shurkin. While in yeshiva, he was zocheh to develop close relationships with his rebbeim, in particular Rabbi Avraham Meiselman and Rabbi Yosef Kupetz.

After yeshiva, he entered Yeshiva University for college and, subsequently, law school. After graduation, he joined Goldman Sachs, where he stayed for nearly five years in a number of roles, including its Firmwide Strategy Group. He now runs his own firm in the renewable energy industry.

Through it all, R' Danesh always made it a priority to devote time every day to serious learning, even when it was challenging to find the time. At Goldman Sachs, he started a program for a group of learners, fondly referred to as the GS Yeshiva. The yeshiva included short bursts of high-quality learning, shiurim during car rides, and starting a weekly shiur with his brothers and friends led by Rabbi Avraham Meiselman. Two years into marriage, these Torah-centric values and love for Toras Moshe culminated in coming to Israel with his family for six months this past year to learn in Toras Moshe, spanning the summer, Elul and winter zmanim.

Aside from constantly pushing himself to grow in his own learning, R' Danesh, who is currently completing semicha from Machon L'Horaah, has taken a leadership position in spreading Torah within his Brooklyn Iranian community, where he lives with his wife, Dr. Yael (Roberts), a nurse practitioner, and their young sons. Daniel has been very involved in founding Kehillat Shaarei Shushan, a new shul in development for the Persian kehillah. When it opens, he will head the Beit Midrash programming, spearheading harbatzas Torah initiative, including Gemara, halacha, and mental health shiurim for the shul and the greater community. The shul's goal is ambitious: to create a space for all in the diverse community and to develop a makom of serious talmidei chachamim who are able to learn and connect to Torah on a high level, with the Beit Midrash being the hub and focal point of the community.

In addition, Daniel founded Legally Links in 2019 and started the Links Family Opportunities Chat in 2021. Legally Links, a branch of Links Family, is a group of lawyers and finance professionals who volunteer to assist families who have lost a parent and require legal and financial advice. This ranges from banking to budget management to accounting and social security survivors' benefits. To date, the organization has assisted in over 650 cases.

The Opportunities Chat, now encompassing close to 2,000 people, was created to fund emergent needs on a weekly basis for Links families that were not covered by the operating budget. To date, it has raised over $1.2 million through small donations, all of which go directly to Links families.

R' Danesh credits his parents with imbuing in him the value that Torah learning must come above all. He saw the sacrifices they made for their children's Torah learning, and how supportive they've always been of his own learning. He is very grateful to his Toras Moshe rebbeim for their care and involvement throughout his life, and for instilling in him the strong message that wherever a person finds himself in life, he must always push himself to learn, to grow, and then to give over that Torah to others. Above all, like many Toras Moshe alumni, he recognizes that his wife's encouragement and belief in their joint life mission powers all that he does.

Yeshivas Toras Moshe is very proud to recognize

WORDS FROM OUR GUESTS OF HONOR

It is with deep appreciation and heartfelt thanks that we acknowledge Yeshivas Toras Moshe, its esteemed Rosh HaYeshiva, Rebbeim, and Hanhala, for the immeasurable impact they have had on our lives.

From the moment I first walked into Yeshiva, there was something unique in the Yerushalayim air that permeated the Yeshiva—a ruach of hasmadah and a deep yearning for growth. It was an environment that inspired, uplifted, and transformed us.

I was fortunate to be surrounded by an incredible chevra, a group of friends who pushed each other to strive for unimaginable heights in Torah and Avodas Hashem. Nestled in the Novardok building, just a short drive from the Kosel (and not far from the Mosayof Shtiebel), our small Beis Medrash became a place where Torah came alive. Rav Shurkin's shiurim infused every word of Rashi with meaning, while the Rosh Yeshiva's clarity made every Rambam speak to us in the deepest way. We were engulfed by an otherworldly kedushah that shaped our minds and souls.

The older bochurim set the standard for hasmadah and selflessness, giving generously of their time to learn with us and guide us. While we may not have had the most comfortable physical accommodations, we had something far greater—the most incredible chevraschaft, an unbreakable bond that fueled our growth in Torah and avodah.

My time in Toras Moshe built upon the foundation that were forged by family. It opened my mind and heart to a depth and geshmak in Torah, and a true appreciation for Avodas Hashem—a fire that continues to propel us forward every day. The Mashgiach's thought-provoking va'adim still provide invaluable lessons, and the awe-inspiring tzidkus of Rav Twersky, zt"l, continues to challenge and motivate us daily. Witnessing the unwavering dedication of my chaverim and Rebbeim was—and remains—an ongoing source of inspiration.

Above all, we extend our deepest thanks to the Rosh Yeshiva, shlit"a, whose unwavering moral clarity and guidance serve as a cornerstone for our family, illuminating the path of Torah and Avodas Hashem.

Our connection to Toras Moshe has only deepened over the years, especially through the privilege of hosting the Mashgiach, Rav Abramowitz, and others during their visits to America—an experience that continues to enrich our home and our hearts.

We are especially proud that our son, Nachman, is now following in this hallowed path in Toras Moshe, learning and growing in Torah and Avodas Hashem alongside his friends. As parents, we have personally witnessed the unparalleled dedication of the Yeshiva to its talmidim, providing them with the guidance, warmth, and clarity they need to thrive. Seeing this next generation flourish is a true testament to the Yeshiva's ongoing success.

With immense hakaras hatov,

In Honor of

the Rosh HaYeshiva, שליט"א

Rav Naftali, שליט"א

and Rav Eli, שליט"א

We are deeply grateful for the opportunity to be involved behind the scenes in organizing this incredible dinner. Witnessing the thought, effort, dedication, and meticulous attention to detail that went into creating this special event has been both humbling and awe-inspiring. It's clear that this dinner reflects the deep commitment that Toras Moshe embodies.

As proud talmidim of this Yeshiva, we are privileged to support its continued growth and its efforts to develop current and future talmidim who will carry forward the mesorah we received. The roots of Torah and Emes planted here continue to flourish in our lives, and we are energized by seeing the next generation thrive.

More than just an opportunity to support the Yeshiva's growth, this dinner gave us a moment to pause and reflect on the incredible zechus we've had to be shaped by greatness. This reflection has only deepened our appreciation for the influence of Toras Moshe in our lives, and for that, we are truly indebted.

Reflecting on these roots has inspired a renewed sense of purpose, guiding the paths we now walk and the future we strive to build.

With deep gratitude,

Ari Rosenfeld and Uri Jaskiel

To the

Rosh HaYeshiva, שליט"א

I express my heartfelt gratitude to the Rosh Yeshiva for your absolute dedication to the growth of each talmid, which I've felt in a real way. Your impact on my life extends from my formative years as a bochur in yeshiva through my early marriage in Kollel, until today. I am forever grateful for the deep impact you have had on my life and I continuously draw upon the Torah and Mesorah that you have imparted.

o o o

To

Rabbi Weiner, שליט"א

I extend my deepest appreciation to Rabbi Weiner for playing a pivotal role in establishing the shorashim for my growth as a bochur and for helping to develop those very roots as my Rosh Chabura and Rav in my early years of marriage. Your mentorship, patience, and guidance laid the foundation for the development of my life and values. Thank you for helping direct my route, and for your lasting influence on who I am today.

With gratitude,

Ari and Bleema Rosenfeld

It's an honor to celebrate here tonight in Honor of the Rosh HaYeshiva, שליט"א
and all my Rebbeim, שליט"א

I am deeply grateful to the Rosh HaYeshiva for setting an exceptionally high bar for what we are capable of achieving. His leadership and example have shown us what it truly means to strive for greatness in all aspects of our lives.

Rabbi Weiner has provided invaluable halachic direction, but more importantly, his humble guidance and wisdom during the formative years of our marriage have shaped us profoundly.

My close friends from the Class of 2006—thank you for challenging and inspiring me, for being there through the tough moments, and for celebrating the high moments. The camaraderie and bonds we share are ones I cherish deeply.

Rabbis Naftali and Eli Meiselman, your incredible mesiras nefesh is mind-blowing. Your openness and growth-oriented mindset are driving the Yeshiva to new levels, and it's inspiring to witness.

Rabbi Klein, I am forever indebted to you for the overflowing love and depth of our relationship. Dancing at Eli's chasuna was one of the highlights of my life—it's a testament to how profoundly my life has been shaped by you.

Rabbi Shurkin, your belief in me and your gift of a vibrant Ahavas HaTorah have encouraged me to approach learning with passion and commitment. I am deeply thankful for your guidance in helping me discover my unique chelek in Torah.

Finally, Chesky Lang, thank you for pushing me to master a sugya all the way through Halacha. Your challenges laid the foundation for my deep appreciation of Halacha and its study.

With deep gratitude,
Uri and Tamar Jaskiel

ישיבת
תורה
משה
42 Years
ANNUAL DINNER
2025

In honor of

Rabbi Daniel Danesh

Yeshiva is a place where you learn a craft, a craft for life, the craft of learning.

Many come into its walls and excel, taking with them the craft that they have attained into the broader world. Yet, there are those who are always looking for more, understanding that this craft takes a lifetime to master.

These individuals continue to dive into the depths of the Gemara, even when their yeshiva years seem to be behind them.

R' Daniel Danesh has shown all of us what it means to be someone who in essence never left Yeshiva. He is someone who personifies that which Chazal say:

אחת אמר רב יהודה אמר רב לעולם אל ימנע אדם את עצמו מבית המדרש
ואפילו שעה — שבת (פג:)

Seeing him day in and day out learning with chavrusas, whether with bachurim or on the phone, was a sight to behold.

He energized all those that experienced seeing his learning, by asking different chavrusashafts questions that he and his chavrusa had, sharing a thought, and even giving explanations using his law background.

He made himself like one of the bachurim in the beis midrash, enveloping himself in the yeshiva atmosphere.

In addition, inviting bachurim for Shabbos meals gave us a taste of his אהבת התורה and Persian pride.

You could find him in the beis midrash at all times of the day, taking advantage of the opportunity he placed for himself.

Furthermore, he is someone who is always searching for the truth, in all areas. You could ask him a question and he would respond that he did not know the answer, but would then go and pursue the truth and look it up for you.

He never takes any questions about Torah lightly

The tremendous mesirus nefesh that he displayed to us all for months in Yeshiva will leave a major impact on us, showing us all how determination and a Torah mindset will carry you through the trials of life.

He surrounds his life around Torah, not Torah around his life

We cannot thank him enough

ANNUAL
2025

It is a privilege to honor
Rabbi Weiner, שליט"א

A leader who has not only taught Torah, but has embodied its values in every aspect of his life

Through his wisdom, dedication and unwavering commitment to Klal Yisrael, he has inspired me and so many others to strive for greater heights in our עבודת ה'

Rabbi Weiner does not just teach Torah — he lives it

Through his actions, his humility and his devotion to the klal, he has shown us what it truly means to live a life guided by Torah values

His example has strengthened my own path and deepened my understanding of what it means to serve Hashem with integrity and sincerity

In this moment of honor,
I would be remiss if I didn't recognize the tremendous impact of

the Rosh HaYeshiva

Rabbi Meiselman, שליט"א

whose leadership continues to shape generations of talmidim

and Rabbi Abramowitz, שליט"א whose dedication to Torah and chinuch has left an indelible mark on all of us

May עבודת הקודש grant continued strength and success in their
